STIPULATION AND ORDER CONVERTING TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER INTO A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

THIS MATTER previously came before the Honorable Kevin H. Sharp on October 2, 2015, on Plaintiffs Fred Robinson’s and Steven Gibbs’s Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order and Motion for Preliminary Injunction (“Motion”), against Defendants Providence Community Corrections, Inc. (“PCC, Inc.”) and Rutherford County, Tennessee (“Rutherford County”) (collectively “Defendants”). Subsequent to the parties’ agreement for entry of the temporary restraining order (“TRO”), the parties now further agree that the TRO should be converted to a preliminary injunction (“Injunction”).

Plaintiffs and Defendants, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 65, stipulate and request immediate entry of this preliminary injunction against Defendants on the following terms:

IT IS ORDERED and ADJUDGED that the Injunction is hereby GRANTED as follows:

1. Defendant Rutherford County, and its agents, employees, and officers, including specifically the Rutherford County Sheriff, are hereby enjoined from serving or executing any warrant, sought and issued solely on the basis of nonpayment of court costs, fines or probation or other fees, for the arrest of Fred Robinson or Steven Gibbs;

2. Defendant Rutherford County and its agents, employees, and officers, including specifically the Rutherford County Sheriff, are hereby enjoined from serving and executing any warrant, sought and issued on the basis of violation of probation, for the arrest of Fred Robinson or Steven Gibbs that includes a preset secured money bond condition that would require payment in order for Mr. Robinson or Mr. Gibbs to be released from custody;

3. Defendant PCC, Inc. and its agents, employees, and officers are hereby enjoined from seeking the issuance of any warrant, other than a Release on Recognizance (“ROR”) warrant, solely on the basis of nonpayment of court costs, fines or probation or other fees for the arrest of Fred Robinson or Steven Gibbs;

4. Defendant PCC, Inc. and its agents, employees, and officers are hereby enjoined from seeking the issuance of any warrant on the basis of violation of probation, for the arrest of Fred Robinson or Steven Gibbs that seeks a preset secured money bond condition that would require payment in order for Robinson or Gibbs to be released from custody;

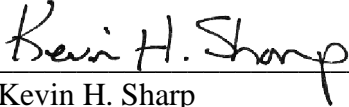

5. The injunction shall remain in effect during the pendency of this case or until further ordered by the Court or stipulated by the parties;

6. Defendants waive all rights to seek judicial review of or otherwise to challenge or contest the validity of this stipulation and order.

7. Defendants are not currently seeking security to pay for any costs or damages related to the injunction at this time, as otherwise provided by Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c);

8. Based on the parties' stipulation to convert the TRO to the Injunction, the Court strikes the hearing on Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction scheduled for the 16th day of October, 2015, at 3:00 p.m. in the United States District Courthouse for the Middle District of Tennessee, Nashville Division, 801 Broadway #800, Nashville, Tennessee;

SO ORDERED this 35th day of October, 2015.
