10/31/2003		SCHEDULE set on 10/31/03 by Hon. John F. Grady : Status hearing set to 10:00 on 11/4/03 . Telephoned notice (am) (Entered: 10/31/2003)
11/04/2003	428	MINUTE ORDER of 11/4/03 by Hon. John F. Grady: The court has a further thought about useful information that could be provided by DCFS in its report to be filed on December 5. What is the approximate number of children referred to by DCFS counsel during today's conference as needing mental health services but who are not receiving those services? DCFS is requested to include that information in the December 5 report. Notices faxed/mailed by judge's staff (cdy) (Entered: 11/05/2003)
11/04/2003	429	MINUTE ORDER of 11/4/03 by Hon. John F. Grady: Status conference held to discuss the concerns raised by Patrick Murphy, the Public Guardian, in his recent letters to the court. Class Counsel and counsel for DCFS agreed with the court that there are four principal areas of concern: (1) unsatisfactory case workers; (2) unsatisfactory private agencies; (3) insufficient numbers of qualified persons willing and able to accept placements; and (4) inadequate services, especially mental health services, provided to children who are placed. The first step in addressing these concerns will be to obtain some statistical data and other background information which will enable the court to gauge, at least preliminarily, the likely dimensions of the problems. The court described to counsel the information it desires. DCFS will provide a report containing this information by December 5, and a further status conference to discuss the information will be held at 10:00 a.m. on 12/09/03. Notices mailed by judge's staff notice (cdy) (Entered: 11/05/2003)
