01/14/2016		MINUTE ORDER. On September 26, 2015, Plaintiffs served their amended complaint in this matter on defendant Alan Larmore; three days later, on September 29, 2015, Plaintiffs also served defendant Kenneth Meushaw. Under Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Larmore and Meushaw had until October 19, 2015, and October 20, 2015, respectively, to file their answers. As of January 12, 2016, neither had filed an answer, and Plaintiffs accordingly requested that the Clerk enter defaults against both Larmore and Meushaw. One day later, Larmore and Meushaw filed a joint answer to the amended complaint, and two days later moved to dismiss certain of Plaintiffs' claims against them. While neither Larmore nor Meushaw sought leave from this Court to file these documents out of time, in light of the judicial preference for resolving disputes on the merits rather than on technicalities, this Court will construe these Defendants' joint answer and motion to dismiss as a motion for leave to file these documents out of time, and so construed, it is hereby ordered that leave to file these documents out of time is GRANTED. It is FURTHER ORDERED that, in light of Defendant's filings, Plaintiffs' request for entry of default against Larmore and Meushaw is DENIED as moot. Signed by Judge Ketanji Brown Jackson on 1/14/2016. (lckbj1) (Entered: 01/14/2016)

07/28/2016		MINUTE ORDER. On July 27, 2016, the parties appeared before this Court for a status conference at which the Court issued an oral ruling on the pending motions to dismiss and lifted the stay on the obligation of the individual defendants to answer or otherwise respond to the Second Amended Complaint. At the conference, the Court indicated that the responses from the individual defendants would be due 21 days after service. However, in light of the fact that different defendants will likely be served at different times, thereby potentially generating dozens of different due dates, the Court has determined that it would be more efficient to set a single date by which all responses are due. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the individual defendants' responses to the Second Amended Complaint, as well as the District's responses to the relevant common law claims (Counts VII, IX, X, and XI), are due by September 21, 2016. Signed by Judge Ketanji Brown Jackson on July 28, 2016. (lckbj3,) (Entered: 07/28/2016)

11/14/2016		MINUTE ORDER. Defendant District of Columbia and the ten individual MPD officers who have been sued in this action (collectively, "Individual Defendants") have filed a 61 Motion to Dismiss that is ripe for this Court's review. The Court has considered the parties' submissions, and it finds that supplemental briefing regarding the issue of qualified immunity is necessary, because neither side has developed its qualified immunity arguments with enough specificity for this Court to decide the merits of Defendants' motion. Specifically, in the motion at issue, the Individual Defendants fail to specify whether they seek qualified immunity solely on the grounds that there was no constitutional violation, or whether they also maintain that the right was not clearly established at the time of any violation. Cf. Patterson v. United States, 999 F. Supp. 2d 300, 311 (D.D.C. 2013) ("As laid out by the Supreme Court, the two pertinent questions in determining whether qualified immunity applies are (1) whether a constitutional right would have been violated on the facts alleged, and (2) whether the right was clearly established at the time of the violation." (internal quotation marks and citations omitted)). Likewise, Plaintiffs merely assert that "broad, undeveloped assertions devoid of supporting authority cannot justify dismissal" (Pls.' Opp'n to Defs.' Mot. to Dismiss, ECF No. 65, at 6 n.2), and they do not otherwise respond to the Individual Defendants' qualified immunity arguments. Cf. Kyle v. Bedlion, No. 12-cv-1572, 2016 WL 1301043, at *4 (D.D.C. Apr. 1, 2016) ("A defendant bears the burden of raising the defense of qualified immunity in response to a claim brought under section 1983, and once the defense is asserted, the burden of proof then falls to the plaintiff to show that the official is not entitled to qualified immunity." (internal quotations marks and citations omitted)). Thus, while it appears the Individual Defendants have met their burden of raising the qualified immunity defense such that Plaintiffs now bear the burden of demonstrating why the individual defendants are not entitled to qualified immunity, the basis (or bases) upon which qualified immunity is sought have not been made clear, nor have Plaintiffs clearly articulated their arguments in opposition to that motion. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties shall file supplemental briefs that conform to the following specifications: first, on or before December 26, 2016, the Individual Defendants shall file a supplemental brief of no more than 15 pages that clarifies the basis (or bases) upon which they are entitled to qualified immunity. Second, on or before January 23, 2017, Plaintiffs shall file a supplemental brief of no more than 25 pages that responds to the Individual Defendants' qualified immunity arguments and explains why the Individual Defendants are not entitled to qualified immunity on the grounds claimed. Any reply to Plaintiffs' responsive brief shall be no more than 10 pages, and shall be filed on or before February 10, 2017. It is FURTHER ORDERED that a motion hearing is set for April 27, 2017 at 2:30 P.M in Courtroom 17 before Judge Ketanji Brown Jackson. The parties shall be prepared to address the qualified immunity arguments, as well as the remaining arguments raised in Defendants' 61 Motion to Dismiss. Signed by Judge Ketanji Brown Jackson on 11/14/2016. (lckbj3) (Entered: 11/14/2016)

01/16/2018		MINUTE ORDER. This Court has now considered 93 Defendants' Renewed Motion for Bifurcation and Stay of Discovery, as well as the parties' briefs regarding this issue, and it concludes that, to avoid undue prejudice to the individual Defendants, bifurcation of the Monell claims is appropriate for the purposes of trial, but the current discovery schedule should proceed as to all claims, to avoid prejudice to Plaintiffs. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(b) (authorizing courts to order a separate trial for reasons of

		"convenience, to avoid prejudice, or to expedite and economize"). Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that 93 Defendants' Renewed Motion for Bifurcation and Stay of Discovery is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART. The parties shall proceed to discovery and shall submit dispositive motions on all claims as provided in the current 89 Scheduling Order. After summary judgment, any surviving non- Monell claims (either against the individual Defendants, or against the District and County through vicarious liability) shall proceed to trial. If there is reason to proceed to the Monell claims after the conclusion of the first trial, a second trial on the Monell claims will follow.
