Plaintiffs' motion for leave to file an oversized memorandum is support of its response to Defendants' motion for protective order [183-1] is GRANTED. Additionally, the Court notes that on 2/24/99, Defendants filed a memorandum in support of its motion for protective order that exceeded the page limit set forth in the local rules but did not file a motion for leave to file the memorandum in excess of the page limit. As the Clerk of the Court has already file stamped this document, any order granting leave to file the memorandum would be moot. However, Defendants are admonished that any future filing exceeding the page or word limitations in the local rules must be accompanied by an appropriate motion for leave to file that particular motion. 03/11/1999		MINUTE-ENTRY: by Judge Michael M. Mihm. On 3/5/99, the Court held a telephone conference hearing concerning Plaintiffs' emergency motion to control discovery. The Court resolved the issue concerning Defendants' depositions of Plaintiffs' counsel. However, the Court withheld ruling on the remaining discovery issues presented by Plaintiffs in their emergency motion as the parties represented to the Court on 3/5/99 that they were holding a discovery conference the following week. The Court informed the parties that if they were unable to resolve the remaining issues in the emergency motion, the Court would resolve them during the 3/10/99 telephone conference hearing. On 3/10/99, the parties represented to the Court that the issues were resolved with the exception of the data dictionary, which Defendants represented was voluminous and was currently being reproduced for Plaintiffs. Defendants further represented that once the copying of the data dictionary is complete, they would provide it to Plaintiffs forthwith. Accordingly, the remaining issues presented in the emergency motion to control discovery [181-1] are MOOT. Defendants motion to compel [157-1] is GRANTED.
