03/22/2016	49	ORDER RE SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE ATTENDANCE. The court just now received the plaintiffs' addendum dated March 21, 2016, about who should attend the settlement conference from the EPA. The court is not a fan of telephone participation and thinks (from prior and extensive settlement negotiations with the government) that in-person attendance is the key to negotiating injunctive relief. That said, the court trusts that all parties will ensure that all persons necessary for an effective settlement conference will attend the conference (even if by telephone or Skype) as opposed to being merely available by telephone. To facilitate participation, the parties should have separate conference call numbers available (and the court appreciates that at least some clients are attending via CourtCall). The court also reminds the parties that it has a previously scheduled matter from (likely) 11:15 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. Given that this is a negotiation, the parties should expect to continue their negotiation in the court's absence. Plaintiff Attorney Marianne Lado; Jonathan Smith with Phyllis Gosa; Micheal Boyd; and Debra Reed. Neil Carmen; Phil Schmitter; and Ron Smith appeared via CourtCall Defendant Attorney Michael Zee with Mary O'lone. The Court sets a further counsel-only settlement conference for Thursday, March 31, 2016, at 1 p.m. PST. Counsel to call into chambers on one line at 415–522–4660. If this time is inconvenient, counsel may reset the time by calling courtroom deputy Lashanda Scott at 415–522–3140 or by emailing lbpo@cand.uscourts.gov. The Court might be able to accommodate an earlier time (such as noon) but will not know until Friday, March 25. 03/31/2016	51	Minute Entry for proceedings held before Magistrate Judge Laurel Beeler: Court held a further settlement conference. The parties agreed to the following process. The plaintiffs will provide a response to the government's March 30 letter no later than April 7. The government also will let the plaintiffs know by March 7 whether it is willing to give insight into the investigative status of the current complaints, not as part of a settlement agreement but for case-management and insight purposes. The parties could agree that the government could provide that information under a mediation/settlement-conference privilege. The government also will respond to the plaintiffs' April 7 letter no later than April 14, 2016. The parties then will confer by telephone before April 21, 2016 to discuss their respective perspectives. The court sets a further telephone call for April 21, 2016, at 1 p.m. Parties to call into chambers at 415-522-4660.
