02/10/2012		MINUTE ORDER: As the parties are aware, in response to the Court's March 20, 2008 Opinion and Order, the National Park Service amended certain parts of 36 C.F.R. Section 7.96(g). Subsequently, plaintiff filed a motion to enforce the existing permanent injunction in this case, requesting that the Court direct the Park Service to rescind part of 36 C.F.R. Section 7.96(g). See Dkt. No. 105. Today, plaintiff filed an unopposed motion for leave to file a supplemental complaint. See Dkt. No. 132. As plaintiff describes it, the supplemental complaint challenges the constitutionality of the amended permitting regulations, 36 C.F.R. Section 7.96(g). The parties are hereby directed to file a joint notice with the Court by February 17, 2012 addressing whether the pending motion to enforce the Court's injunction should be denied as moot if the Court were to grant plaintiff's unopposed motion for leave to file a supplemental complaint, and, if not, why not.
