11/07/2018	167	(IN CHAMBERS) ORDER RE JOINT REPORT AND REQUEST FOR EXTENSION by Judge John A. Kronstadt: The Court has reviewed the parties' Second Joint Report (Dkt. 166) (the "Report") filed in response to the Order issued on October 12, 2018. The Government seeks a further extension of time, to November 20, 2018, in order to continue its review of information pertaining to the number of putative class members who remain in custody. Plaintiffs oppose this request, but would agree to a shorter extension of the deadline, to November 16, 2018. Good cause appearing, the Government's request is GRANTED; provided, however, that absent a showing of compelling circumstances, no further extensions will be granted. The parties shall file a further supplemental joint report, no later than November 20, 2018, containing updated information obtained as a result of the review process described in the Report. 10/23/2019	236	(IN CHAMBERS) ORDER RE PLAINTIFFS' REQUEST FOR A RULING ON MOTIONS UNDER CONSIDERATION (DKT. 235) by Judge John A. Kronstadt: On October 17, 2019, this matter was returned to the Court's active docket (Dkt. 233), and on October 22, 2019, Plaintiff filed a Request for Ruling on Motions Under Consideration (the Request (Dkt. 235)). In light of the Request, and because several months have elapsed since the completion of the briefing of the pending motions while the parties participated in settlement efforts, on or before October 31, 2019, the parties shall submit a joint report, not to exceed five pages, stating their collective and/or respective positions as to the number of putative class members, if any, who are presently in DHS custody, or who are expected to be placed in such custody within the next 30 days. The joint report shall provide separate figures for these putative class members as follows: those who were detained in immigration custody by DHS (i) on or after May 7, 2018; and (ii) between July 1, 2017 and May 6, 2018. The joint report may also provide updates as to any other factual matters addressed in the pending motions that either party considers material to the issues presented in the pending motions. Upon the filing of the joint report, the Court will determine whether any additional information is needed with respect to the pending motions, or whether it will proceed with them based on the record at that time.
