12/27/2018		MINUTE ORDER: Upon consideration of Defendants' Motion to Stay, Dkt. 46 , it is hereby ordered that the motion is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. The motion is GRANTED with respect to Defendants' request to stay production of the certified administrative record, on the understanding that the record will be identical to that produced in the East Bay litigation. With respect to Defendants' request to stay current briefing deadlines, the motion is DENIED. Although the Court is mindful of the current lapse in appropriations, where there is "some reasonable and articulable connection between the function to be performed and the safety of human life or the protection of property," government functions may continue. 43 Op. Att'y Gen. 293 (January 16, 1981). Plaintiffs allege that this is just such a case. The Court further notes that, according to government reports, 48% of employees from the Executive Office for Immigration Review are excepted "to process all immigration cases and appeals involving detained aliens," U.S. Department of Justice FY 2019 Contingency Plan at 5; see also id. at 12, and approximately 91% of Customs and Border Protection employees and 81% of Immigration and Customs Enforcement employees will be retained during a lapse in appropriations. See U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Procedures Relating to a Lapse in Appropriations, at 35-37 (Dec. 17, 2018). 05/21/2019		MINUTE ORDER: Local Rule 7(h) provides that no Statement of Material Facts is necessary in cases in which judicial review is based solely on the administrative record. LCvR 7(h)(2). Because the parties have taken positions as to justiciability that rely on facts outside of the administrative record, however, this is not such a case. See, e.g., Chesapeake Climate Action Network v. Export-Import Bank of the U.S., 78 F. Supp. 3d 208, 217 (D.D.C. 2015) ("Although judicial review of agency action is typically confined to the administrative record, where there is not sufficient evidence of standing in the record because the question was not before the agency, plaintiffs may submit extra-record evidence to establish standing."). Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the Government shall file a response to Plaintiffs' statements of material facts not in dispute, Dkt. 51-1; Dkt. 52-2, on or before May 28, 2019, at 2:00 p.m. Signed by Judge Randolph D.
