09/14/2018		MINUTE ORDER denying 46 Plaintiffs' Motion to Expedite Discovery: On August 3, 2018, Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Expedited Discovery and a Briefing Schedule and Hearing with Respect to Plaintiffs' Motion for Class-Wide Preliminary Injunction. Since Plaintiffs filed that motion, this Court has denied Defendants' motion to dismiss, granted Plaintiffs' motion for class certification, and set a deadline for discovery in this matter. In light of these developments, and for the reasons stated on the record at the September 14, 2018 status conference, the Court DENIES 46 Plaintiffs' Motion to Expedite Discovery, in part as moot and in part on the merits. As explained at the September 14, 2018 status conference, Plaintiffs are not precluded from renewing their motion for preliminary injunction in response to developments during the discovery period. 10/03/2018		MINUTE ORDER: For the reasons stated on the record during the September 28, 2018 telephone hearing, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties shall submit the following materials: First, on or before October 5, 2018, the parties shall submit proposed protective orders governing the production of personal identifying information or other privacy protected information contained in the class members' "A files" or in other records responsive to discovery requests. Second, on or before October 12, 2018, the government shall collect "A files" for ten of the class members, review those files with the Plaintiffs, and determine what information in the files is responsive to the Plaintiffs' document requests. In the meantime, the government shall immediately begin the process of locating and collecting the A files for all class members. On or before October 17, 2018 the parties shall file a joint status report containing proposals for how the parties will address production of the "A files" going forward. Third, the parties shall submit proposals identifying which ICE facilities should be searched for emails and documents, which custodians' emails and documents should be collected and searched from those facilities (the juvenile coordinator, juvenile enforcement officers, their supervisors), and which search terms should be applied to the searches for those emails and documents. Fourth, the parties shall submit proposals identifying the custodians at ICE's headquarters from whom emails and documents should be collected and searched, and identifying the search terms to be applied to those documents. For the third and fourth items, the parties shall exchange initial proposals on or before October 3, 2018 and file with the Court a joint status report containing their final proposals on or before October 5, 2018. Sixth, by October 5, 2018, the parties shall agree on a set of dates on which counsel for both parties are available to depose the third-party witnesses discussed during the telephone hearing (both fact depositions and depositions to preserve testimony for trial). Seventh, by October 5, 2018, the government shall send to plaintiffs a list of the identities of all class members and the name of the ICE facility at which each class member is held. SO ORDERED. 10/29/2018		MINUTE ORDER: For the reasons stated on the record during the October 26, 2018 telephone hearing, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties shall take the following actions. First, the parties shall file submissions addressing the applicability of the deliberative process privilege to documents produced in this action. As part of these submissions, the parties should specifically address the claim of deliberative process privilege over a Parole Determination Worksheet in the example A-File that the Court has reviewed in camera . If the parties wish, their submissions may also discuss the applicability of 8 U.S.C. § 1367 and 8 C.F.R. § 208.6 to the production of documents in this case. Defendants shall file their submission by the close of business on October 30, 2018, and Plaintiffs shall file their response by close of business on November 1, 2018. The submissions shall be limited to five pages in length. Second, Defendants shall produce 5 A-Files to Plaintiffs by November 2, 2018, and 7 additional A-Files by November 9, 2018. Third, Defendants shall collect all emails in the possession of all individuals holding the position of Juvenile Coordinator at the ten field offices identified in 59 Plaintiff's October 5, 2018 Status Report and export them to PST files. Defendants shall make a good faith effort to convert all ten custodians' emails to PST files by November 2, 2018. At the November 2 telephone hearing, defendants should be prepared to discuss how long this process is taking and share the size of the files they have successfully exported. SO ORDERED. 11/02/2018		MINUTE ORDER: For the reasons stated on the record during the November 2, 2018 telephone hearing, the following is hereby ORDERED: First, by November 9, 2018, Defendants shall use their best efforts to transfer the 14 custodians' (Juvenile Coordinators) documents that are currently in PST format into a search-ready format in Relativity. Second, as soon as 2 custodians' documents are in search-ready format in Relativity, Defendants shall begin running Relativity searches on the documents, using the search terms provided in Exhibit A to 59 Plaintiffs October 5, 2018 status report. These searches shall continue on an ongoing basis as additional documents become search-ready, in consultation with Plaintiffs regarding how to narrow the search terms to more precisely capture responsive documents. Third, at least one lawyer representing each party who is knowledgeable on ESI (e.g., Ms. Davila, Ms. Trout-Perez) shall attend a meet-and-confer to take place no later than November 8, 2018, at which these representatives shall discuss whatever ESI-related issues the parties are facing, including the possibility of narrowing the Relativity search terms. Fourth, by November 9, 2018, Defendants shall collect the emails in the possession of Mellissa Harper and export them to PST files. Fifth, by November 6, 2018, Defendants shall file a declaration from someone knowledgeable with the ESI-collection process that addresses the resource and technical constraints that prevent Defendants from collecting ESI any faster than they are currently collecting. This declaration should specifically discuss any problems Defendants would face if they were ordered to export certain custodians' documents to PST files while simultaneously transferring other custodians' PST files to Relativity. 12/28/2018	91	Unopposed MOTION to Stay DURING LAPSE OF APPROPRIATIONS by DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY, THOMAS HOMAN, KIRSTJEN M. NIELSEN, U.S. IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOM ENFORCEMENT (Attachments: # 1 Text of Proposed Order)(Kisor, Colin) (Entered: 12/28/2018)
12/31/2018		MINUTE ORDER denying 91 Defendants' Motion to Stay. The government asks this Court to stay this action because the current lapse in appropriations to federal agencies (i.e. the government shutdown) prohibits the government's attorneys and relevant other employees "from working, even on a voluntary basis, except in very limited circumstances...." Defs.' Mot. at 2, ECF No. 91. Although the Court is

		mindful of the government shutdown, where there is (1) "some reasonable and articulable connection between the [government] function to be performed and the safety of human life or the protection of property"; and (2) "the safety of human life or the protection of property would be compromised, in some degree, by delay," the government function at issue may continue during such a shutdown. 43 Op. Att'y Gen. 293, 302 (Jan. 16, 1981); see also 31 U.S.C. § 1342 (stating that government employees may continue to provide services during a shutdown, in response to "emergencies involving the safety of human life"). This is just such a case. In seeking several delays to date, the government has at times seemed to forget what this case is about: the allegedly unnecessary and illegal detention of young adults in restrictive detention facilities. While these allegations have not yet been fully litigated on their merits, Plaintiffs demonstrated in their successful preliminary injunction motion that they are likely to succeed. See Ramirez v. ICE, 310 F. Supp. 3d 7, 29-30 (D.D.C. 2018). Furthermore, according to government reports, 48% of employees from the Executive Office for Immigration Review will be retained during the shutdown "to process all immigration cases and appeals involving detained aliens," see DOJ, FY 2019 Contingency Plan, at 5, 12 (Sept. 11, 2018), and approximately 91% of Customs and Border Protection employees and 81% of ICE employees will similarly be retained, see DHS, Procedures Relating to a Lapse in Appropriations, at 35-37 (Dec. 17, 2018). If the government can allocate resources during the shutdown to staff the facilities in which Plaintiffs are detained (again, allegedly unnecessarily and illegally), it can allocate resources to staff the defense of Plaintiffs' action. Accordingly, and in line with decisions by other courts in this jurisdiction regarding substantially similar government motions, see Minute Order, O.A. v. Trump, No. 18-2718 (D.D.C. Dec. 27, 2018); Minute Order, Grace v. Sessions, No. 18-1853 (D.D.C. Dec. 27, 2018), it is hereby ORDERED that this action shall not be stayed. It is FURTHER ORDERED that the government shall comply with the ESI discovery schedule recently adopted by this Court, and that the weekly discovery conference calls shall continue as scheduled, regardless of the shutdown. SO ORDERED. Signed by Judge Rudolph Contreras on December 31, 2018. (lcrc3) (Entered: 12/31/2018)

07/31/2019		MINUTE ORDER: Upon consideration of the parties' respective positions as stated in 194 their joint status report, the following is hereby ORDERED: With respect to field office custodians who have left their positions since October 28, 2018, ICE shall produce responsive ESI for their successors starting on the date they assumed their new position.

		This includes the successors for one Phoenix Field Office Juvenile Coordinator, who left her position on or about January 12, 2019, and two Chicago Field Office Juvenile Coordinators, who left their positions on or about March 1, 2019. Defendants' argument that these productions will be duplicative and disproportionate to the needs of the case is unpersuasive because Defendants' de-dupe technology should reduce any burden of the productions significantly. 08/02/2019	197	Joint STATUS REPORT by DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY, THOMAS HOMAN, KIRSTJEN M. NIELSEN, U.S. IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOM ENFORCEMENT. (Kisor, Colin) (Entered: 08/02/2019)
08/05/2019		MINUTE ORDER: In their 197 Joint Status Report filed on August 2, 2019, the parties stated that they believed that 152 Defendants' Motion to Strike and Re-File remained unresolved. But upon review of the docket, the Court granted that motion by sealed minute order on April 17, 2019, before Plaintiffs' filed their 163 Opposition on May 1, 2019. Having reviewed Plaintiffs' Opposition, the Court generally agrees that the blank Age-Out Review Worksheets "do not reveal an otherwise unknown law enforcement process or technique," ECF No. 163 at 5, and the Court itself has previously remarked that the blank Worksheets do not contain "highly sensitive information," ECF No. 130 at 3. The Court need not reconsider its disposition of 152 Defendants' Motion to Strike and Re-File, however, because the specific dispute is moot: the motion was related to 109 Defendants' Amended Motion for Protective Order, which the Court denied on April 22, 2019, see ECF No. 156 . And even if the Court had made a concrete determination that the blank Worksheets were protected by law enforcement sensitivity, such a determination would have limited relevance to whether deposition testimony that merely discussed the Worksheets would be protected. Accordingly, the parties are advised to treat disagreements over deposition testimony as they would any other discovery dispute: They are obligated to meet and confer in good faith to attempt to resolve or narrow the dispute informally. If the parties are unable to reach agreement on particular transcript sections, they should inform the Court in an appropriate weekly status report. SO ORDERED. 01/06/2020	266	REPLY re 265 Response to Document, filed by WILMER GARCIA RAMIREZ, SULMA HERNANDEZ ALFARO. (Patton, Stephen) (Entered: 01/06/2020)
01/09/2020		MINUTE ORDER admitting Plaintiffs demonstratives Nos. 21A, 22A, 25A, 26A, 27A, 28A, 28B, 28C, and 68 Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 1006. It is hereby ORDERED that these documents are admitted as summaries. The Government has not disputed in its briefing that the demonstratives in question qualify as accurate summaries or charts under Rule 1006, that they reflect the content of a voluminous spreadsheet produced by the Government, and that the spreadsheet is itself admissible. Neither does the government dispute that exhibits initially offered as demonstratives can be properly admitted as summaries. The Government appears to be correct in saying that these demonstratives were produced approximately two weeks after the deadline for evidentiary exhibits and that they were updated during the trial. However, to the extent that the exhibits were untimely submitted, the Court can extend that deadline for the purpose of admitting these exhibits. This is equitable because the Government also supplemented its own exhibits after the deadline, ECF No. 259 , and, more importantly, because the Government updated its production of some of the data underlying these demonstrative exhibits during the second week of trial. There is no evidence that the Government was prejudiced by any delay, as it had access to earlier, largely identical versions of the same exhibits. Although the Government argues that it may have somehow changed its cross-examination at trial depending on whether the exhibits were only demonstratives rather than substantive, nowhere does it explain how this would be so and the Court cannot surmise what such a change would entail. SO ORDERED. Signed by Judge Rudolph Contreras on 1/9/2020. (lcrc2) (Entered: 01/09/2020)
