12/03/2020		MINUTE ORDER denying the Government's 82 MOTION for Reconsideration and finding as moot the Government's 85 MOTION for Leave to File Supplemental Declaration. The Government renews its request that the Court stay its preliminary injunction issued on November 18, 2020, contending that, inter alia, (1) given the rise in COVID-19

infections in States along the southern border, "enjoining the CDC Order [that allows for the expulsion of class members pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 265] at this juncture would create or exacerbate conditions conducive to further COVID-19 outbreaks," Gov't's Mot., ECF No. 82 at 9-10; (2) the increase in the number of unaccompanied minors, could lead to "hospital systems in some localities " to be overwhelmed; id. at 11; and (3) the "recent increases in the number of referrals to" the Office of Refugee Resettlement ("ORR"), during the pandemic, could lead to "greater challenges in accommodating the expected increases in referrals of covered minors," and potentially force ORR transport class members further inland, id. at 12-15. The Government states that it is "not seeking reconsideration of this Court's order granting Plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction, ECF No. 15, or provisionally granting Plaintiff's motion to certify a class, ECF No. 2." Gov't's Mot., ECF No. 82 at 4 n.2. In opposition, the Plaintiff argues that "[the Government's] failure to contest the Court's merits ruling is an arguably fatal flaw for a stay application and should be determinative here... particularly given [the Government's] additional failure to contest the irreparable harm to the children." Pl.'s Opp'n, ECF No. 84 at 5 (internal citations and quotation marks omitted). Plaintiff also contends that (1) no class member in ORR custody has required hospitalization due to COVID-19, see id. at 5; (2) the Government's speculation that there will be an increase in the number of unaccompanied children entering the country "is riddled with inconsistencies and misdirection," id. at 7; and (3) the Government has "not demonstrated that [U.S. Customs & Border Protection] or ORR facilities lack additional capacity to hold children even if the numbers substantially increase," id. at 9. In this Court, motions for reconsideration pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure are examined under the "standard set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e)". United States v. Fareri, No. CR 09-54 (EGS), 2018 WL 8754169, at *2 (D.D.C. Oct. 19, 2018) (Sullivan, J.). Under that standard, a Rule 59(e) motion-and in this case a 54(b) motion-"need not be granted unless the district court finds that there is an intervening change of controlling law, the availability of new evidence, or the need to correct a clear error or prevent manifest injustice." Id. As the Government is requesting that the Court reconsider its denial of a stay of its November 18, 2020 preliminary injunction, the Court will review the Government's motion using the factors governing the granting of a stay pending an appeal. A "stay pending [an] appeal is always an extraordinary remedy," United States v. Philip Morris USA, Inc., 449 F. Supp. 2d 988, 990 (D.D.C. 2006) (internal citation and quotation marks omitted); and the "party requesting a stay bears

		the burden of showing that the circumstances justify an exercise of that discretion," Nken v. Holder, 556 U.S. 418, 43334 (2009). In determining whether to grant a stay pending an appeal, a Court must consider "(1) whether the applicant has made a strong showing that [it] is likely to succeed on the merits; (2) whether the applicant will be irreparably injured absent a stay; (3) whether issuance of the stay will substantially injure the other parties interested in the proceeding; and (4) where the public interest lies." Nken, 556 U.S. at 34. Of these, the "first two factors of the traditional standard are the most critical." Id. Here, the Government clearly has not met its burden. Even though the "first two factors of the traditional [stay] standard are the most critical," id.; the Government does not even consider the first stay factor-likelihood of success on the merits, see generally, Gov't's Mot., ECF No. 82-nor does it sufficiently explain how it will be "irreparably injured absent a stay," see id. (stating only "any increase in the transfer of class members into [border] States' health care systems is likely to cause irreparable harm to the public"). The Government also fails to address the final two factors- whether issuance of the stay will substantially injure the other parties interested in the proceeding, and where the public interest lies. See generally, Gov't's Mot., ECF No. 82. Because the Court finds that the Government did not note any intervening change of controlling law, provide sufficient new evidence concerning the stay factors, or point out any clear error or manifest injustice, see Fareri, 2018 WL 8754169, at *2, it is ORDERED that the Government's motion for reconsideration, ECF No. 82, is DENIED. Signed by Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on 12/3/2020. (lcegs2) (Entered: 12/03/2020)
