04/15/2020	86	Judge William G. Young: ELECTRONIC ORDER entered denying 82 Motion to Stay Further Releases by Thomas M. Hodgson. "We are in the midst of a pandemic unprecedented in our lifetime. Past experience is an uncertain guide to meeting the challenges of today. Thus, while the Court notes the revised ICE regulations concerning detainees, it is simply not presently in a position to issue any blanket stay which would, as a practical matter, go far to determining the merits of this case, ignoring the many other issues raised by the class. Instead, the Court will continue, on an individual basis, to work through the difficult issues of bail in the present crisis. That done, probably by the end of next week, we shall together schedule proceedings promptly to address the merits. Moreover, compelling issues of individual, institutional, and community health preclude the luxury of a stay so counsel can 'consider their appellate options.' The motion is denied. The release of Sandro Vera Campoverde on bond means he drops out of the class. Augustine Ohenhen is denied bail. Neved Bai Maney Lal is to be released forthwith on the same bail terms as heretofore. The remaining bail determinations already considered remain under advisement." (Gaudet, Jennifer) (Entered: 04/15/2020)

		answers to interrogatories is ALLOWED as to interrogatories 6 and 9. The Court accepts plaintiffs counsels response that they have no such additional information as to interrogatory no. 6 after appropriate inquiry. Counsels objection to interrogatory no. 9 is overruled and a complete answer shall be furnished within 30 days of the date of this order. The motion is otherwise DENIED as immaterial. On or before Thursday, May 28, 2020 the defendants shall make a comprehensive and detailed report to the Court setting forth, with specific dates, the plan for testing staff and detainees at the Bristol facility as required by this Courts preliminary injunction. Comprehensive testing is key here. The Court is informed that the Massachusetts Department of Corrections has assured the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court that it is proceeding to test all DOC staff and is offering to test every inmate. Since, under our Constitution, ICE power to lock a person up is limited by its obligation to care for that person, surely ICE can be expected to care for its civil detainees at least as well as Massachusetts cares for its convicted felons. Since, under the orders presently. In place, no detainee is to leave the facility until such testing of staff and detainees has taken place, the defendants are under no additional duties to report beyond those presently ordered by this Court or other Judges thereof. Young: Motion Hearing held on 6/3/2020 by video re 185 MOTION for Reconsideration of Preliminary Injunction Decision filed by Thomas M. Hodgson. The Court Orders: The Court invites, but does not require, both parties to inform the Court what acceptable population range can be safely held in the facility. Recognizing that the question of safety is

		an evolving issue, no partys selection of a number shall be taken as an admission that can be held against its initial position. Such a filing, if undertaken, shall be submitted by next Wednesday, 6/13/20; The Court orders respondent to submit a report by next Wednesday, 6/13/20, of those immigration detainees held at Bristol County House of Correction who are at heightened risk to COVID-19 and are thus eligible for review for release by ICE under ICEs Pandemic Response Requirements and the April 4 memorandum from Assistant Director Peter Berg which it cites. By the same date, both parties are invited to submit briefing regarding medically vulnerable detainees to be considered for bail by the Court. The preliminary injunction is modified to make the testing of staff at the facility voluntary. All staff shall be afforded an opportunity to be tested. Accepting or declining the test shall have no effect on a staff members job. Any symptomatic staff member shall be promptly tested. ICE shall bear the cost of this testing.
