11/01/2013	76	MINUTE ORDER TEXT Only: On October 31, 2013, the Court held a telephonic status conference to discuss the parties' coordinated efforts to resolve this class action. Defense counsel gave an overview of activities. The Fresno County Board of Supervisors has agreed to approve the application for funds to construct a new jail facility. New funds have also been designated to renovate current jail facilities and redress ADA compliance issues. A decision on the RFP for third party providers of mental health is expected in January 2014. The County is pursuing a potential program to reduce the number of pretrial detainees. In November and January, the County Advocate will hold additional meetings to address outstanding issues and outside bid proposals. Plaintiff stated that plaintiff circulated a draft consent decree that memorializes the issues and recommendations identified in the expert investigation reports. The parties requested a further telephonic status conference, which the Court sets for Thursday, January 30, 2014 at 8:00 am before Judge Barbara A. McAuliffe. One week prior to the conference, the parties should prepare a brief update regarding the intended action by the county and what items, if any, remain outstanding. signed by Magistrate Judge Barbara A. 05/30/2014	86	MINUTES (Text Only) for proceedings held before Magistrate Judge Barbara A. McAuliffe on 5/30/2014: Discussions held regarding the status of the consent decree and the County's approval of jail staffing measures. The County Board of Supervisors will receive and review the jail staffing report by mid-June and the results of that review will have an impact on final consent decree terms. In light of the foregoing, the parties raised two key issues including: (1) the language needed to obtain the Court's final approval of the consent decree and (2) the need to set a further status conference after the submission of the jail staffing report. Accordingly, at the parties' request, the Court SETS a further Telephone Status Conference for Tuesday, July 29, 2014 at 9:30am before Judge Barbara A. McAuliffe. 09/16/2014	92	MINUTE ORDER TEXT Only: On September 16, 2014, the Court held a telephonic status conference to discuss the parties' coordinated efforts to reach a final resolution in this matter. Progress towards a final settlement is ongoing and over the last month the parties have reached resolution on several major issues addressed in the consent decree. Subject to final approval of the Board of Supervisors, counsel has agreed on an attorneys' fee arrangement and settled various staffing issues. Still remaining is a resolution of the final remediation plan. Currently the parties are attempting to resolve discrepancies in the joint experts' recommendations and the County's implementation of those recommendations. Counsel agrees that although issues remain, they are not insurmountable. Per the request of counsel, the Court SETS a further Telephonic Status Conference for Wednesday, November 19, 2014 at 9:00 am before Judge McAuliffe . No later than November 12, 2014, the parties shall file a status report updating the court on the status of negotiations, including but not limited to, the County's response as to whether they will implement all or some of the joint experts' recommendations. signed by Magistrate Judge Barbara A. 11/19/2014	96	MINUTE ORDER TEXT Only: On November 19, 2014, the Court held another telephonic status conference to discuss the parties' coordinated efforts to reach a final resolution in this matter. The parties are nearing the end of their settlement negotiations with only a few issues remaining. The County is currently in the process of determining whether the County's third party healthcare provider will be able to fully implement Plaintiffs' proposed remedial plan without additional contract negotiations. If further contract negotiations must take place, an amended contract is subject to final approval by the Board of Supervisors. Counsel also began discussing the proposed plan for caring for mentally ill prisoners housed in the segregation unit at the jail, but discussion on that issue was tabled until a later date. In the interim, the parties agreed to submit a stipulation to the Court agreeing that Defendants would complete a review of Plaintiffs' proposed remedial plan and submit a response to Plaintiffs on or before December 5, 2014. The Court set a further Telephonic Status Conference for Monday, December 15, 2014 at 9:00am before Judge Barbara A. McAuliffe. No later than December 10, 2014 , the parties shall file a status report updating the Court on the status of the remedial plan and whether the Board of Supervisors will need to approve an amended contract with Corizon. signed by Magistrate Judge Barbara A.
