	Additional Text:

Appearances: - Attorney Mary Gundrum for Milton Christensen, Alisa Jamieson, William Noggle and Troy Briggs. - Attorney Micabil Diaz Martinez for Erika Henderson. - Attorney Richard Victor for state defendant. - Attorney John Schapekahm for Robert Kliesmet and Milwaukee County. Statements made. Arguments heard. Court DENIES plaintiff's petition for attorney's fees, costs and expenses against defendant WI DOC. Court GRANTS plaintiff's petition for attorney fees for the work of Legal Aid Society as court appointed counsel against defendants Milwaukee County Sheriff and Milwaukee County. The court finds that the only issues remaining are what the hourly rate for compensation of attorneys' fees should be and whether the number of hours should be reduced by work performed in opposition to DOC or by duplication. Parties have 30 days to submit up to 5 affidavits regarding these issues. Plaintiff's have 60 days to further itemize the hours submitted so as to isolate hours spent on work against the DOC and to identify work that may or may not be duplicative. The court finds that the ACLU is entitled to attorneys fees and expenses because the court appointed the Legal Aid Society. Attorney Gundrum to prepare order. j.kap
