04/22/2020		MINUTE ORDER: There is a strong presumption in favor of public access to judicial records and documents, but that presumption "may be outweighed in certain cases by competing interests." Metlife, Inc. v. Fin. Stability Oversight Council , 865 F.3d 661, 665 (D.C. Cir. 2017). Here, Defendants seek leave to file under seal Saint Elizabeths Hospital's Emergency Preparedness Plan ("EPP"). The EPP contains non -public details about operations at Saint Elizabeths Hospital and how the District

		plans to maintain operations during various emergency situations, including information about which kinds of patients are kept where, logistics for moving people in emergency situations, and locations of emergency supplies. The Court finds that the public interest in the disclosure of this document is low because little, if any of the EPP's contents bear on the matters being litigated in the case--the Defendants' response to COVID-19. Instead, the EPP's contents pertain to more general emergency preparedness measures. The reason for sealing, in contrast, is compelling. The EPP contains sensitive operational and security details that could be compromised by public disclosure. Accordingly, Defendants' motion for leave to file under seal, Dkt. 44, is hereby GRANTED. The EPP, Dkt. 44-1 (attached exhibits to Dkt. 44), shall be filed under SEAL. Signed by Judge Randolph D. Moss on 04/22/2020. 05/07/2020		MINUTE ORDER: For the reasons stated on the record at the May 7, 2020 status conference, and with consent of the parties, it is hereby ORDERED that the Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) entered on April 25, 2020, Dkt. 60, is hereby EXTENDED until 11:59 pm on May 11, 2020, unless further extended for good cause before that time. The extension is warranted because the public health crisis at Saint Elizabeths Hospital continues, because amici have provided the Court with their preliminary report, which supports the need for continued judicial relief, because amici will not provide their final, written report to the Court until 5:00 pm on May 11, 2020, and because the Court will need an opportunity to determine whether the TRO should be extended and/or modified in light of that report. For the reasons the Court has previously explained, Plaintiffs have established that they are likely to prevail on the merits, that they risk suffering irreparable harm in the absence of emergency relief, and that the public interest and balance of harms tip in favor emergency relief. Finally, the Court notes that these proceedings have not occurred ex parte and that the Court has had the opportunity to hear from, and to consider the views of, both Plaintiffs and Defendants. 10/13/2020		MINUTE ORDER: Pending before the Court is Plaintiffs' motion to file a surreply brief or, in the alternative, to strike certain arguments in Defendants' reply brief. Dkt. 116 . Defendants opposed the motion, Dkt. 119 , and Plaintiffs replied, Dkt. 120 . In the parties' briefing, an entirely different dispute emerged about whether Defendants had complied with the Court's prior order that they provide Plaintiffs with jurisdictional discovery. At a hearing on January 22, 2020, the Court granted in part Plaintiffs' motion for jurisdictional discovery. See Minute Entry (Jan. 22, 2020). The Court permitted jurisdictional discovery "as to items 1, 2, 4, 5, and 6 of Exhibit 1," and the Court also permitted, "[a]s to item 8 of Exhibit 1," Plaintiffs to "serve a request for admission as outlined by the Court on the record." Id. Defendants argue that they complied with that order by denying a request for admission from Plaintiffs. Dkt. 119 at 34; Dkt. 119 -2 at 5. Plaintiffs contend that Defendants, by denying the request for admission, have complied

		with only one of six parts of the Court's order of jurisdictional discovery and that Plaintiffs "are still lacking critical information" needed to respond to Defendants' jurisdictional arguments. Dkt. 120 at 2. The Court agrees with Plaintiffs that Defendants have not yet fully complied with the Court's order granting jurisdictional discovery. The Court will therefore ORDER that Defendants serve on Plaintiffs the full jurisdictional discovery outlined in the Court's prior order on or before November 16, 2020. It is hereby further ORDERED that the parties shall file a joint status report on the progress of jurisdictional discovery on or before November 16, 2020. The Court will reserve judgment on the motion to file a surreply until after the completion of jurisdictional discovery. Signed by Judge Randolph D. Moss on 10/13/2020. 11/19/2020		MINUTE ORDER: Upon consideration of the parties' joint status report, Dkt. 125 , it is hereby ORDERED that the parties shall file a further joint status report updating the Court on the status of jurisdictional discovery on or before December 1, 2020. 12/02/2020		MINUTE ORDER: Still pending before the Court is Plaintiffs' motion for leave to file a sur-reply or, in the alternative, to strike arguments not previously raised. Dkt. 116 . Defendants opposed the motion, Dkt. 119 , and Plaintiffs replied, Dkt. 120 . In those briefs, a separate-yet-related dispute emerged over whether

		Defendants had fully complied with the Court's prior order directing them to produce jurisdictional discovery. The Court thus ordered Defendants to complete jurisdictional discovery and reserved judgment on the motion to file a sur-reply until after the completion of jurisdictional discovery. The parties have now filed a joint status report, Dkt. 127 , indicating that jurisdictional discovery is complete and renewing their respective positions on the necessity of the sur-reply. Upon consideration of the parties' submissions, it is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiffs' motion for leave to file a sur-reply or, in the alternative, to strike arguments not previously raised, is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. Plaintiffs may file a sur-reply of no more than seven pages on or before December 11, 2020. In their brief, Plaintiffs may address only (1) the applicability in this case of the voluntary cessation exemption to the mootness doctrine, in light of Defendants' contention that they ceased the challenged behavior independent of this litigation, and (2) the timeliness of Plaintiffs' motion for class certification. The Court will not, however, strike Defendants' arguments. Signed by Judge Randolph D. Moss on 12/2/2020. (lcrdm2) (Entered: 12/02/2020)
