03/16/2010	15	ORDER granting in part 14 Motion to Amend Scheduling Order; the current discovery and dispositive motion deadlines will remain as established, provided, however, this court will set an additional deadline of June 4, 2010, as the date by which plaintiffs shall file a motion for class certification if they intend to do so in this case (with normal response and reply deadlines); furthermore, whether or not they choose to file such a motion, plaintiffs shall arrange for a status conference with the magistrate judge during the week of June 7, 2010, to discuss further amendment and adjustment of the scheduling order (including reestablishment of any previously expired deadlines such as amendment of pleadings or expert designations which are partially suspended by operation of this order). Since the parties anticipate engaging in "class certification" discovery between now and May 14, 2010, they should establish internal deadlines for the designation of any "class certification" experts sufficiently prior to that date to avoid extension of this interim order. 		filed by GAIL FLETCHER, ERIC REEVES, JACOB VAN METER. (YOUNG, JEFFREY) (Entered: 10/23/2012)
12/21/2012	121	ORDER granting 114 Motion for judicial conference and mediation. The PASRR dispute is a dispute about a corrective plan and one that is made subject to further mediation by the terms of the Settlement Agreement. The court will hold a conference on the other issues set out by the plaintiff, which are not subject to further mediation under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, in the hope that such a judicial conference will assist the parties in reducing or eliminating their disagreements about those issues. The clerk is directed to schedule a conference and is directed to schedule a mediation session on the two next available dates; the two matters may be combined on a single day, if counsel agree to such a consolidation in the interest of efficiency. 08/28/2013	138	ORDER granting 134 Motion for mediation. The PASRR dispute is a dispute about a corrective plan, and one that is made subject to further mediation by the terms of the Settlement Agreement. After an earlier mediation, the parties set a deadline of April 5, 2013, for the defendant to produce a corrective plan to address the PASRR process as it affects the plaintiff class members. ECF No. 125. This date was extended by agreement to July 12, 2013, after which, if the parties continued to disagree, either party could seek mediation with the court. ECF No. 132. The plaintiffs have now done so. The clerk is directed to schedule a mediation session on the next available date. By MAGISTRATE JUDGE JOHN H. RICH III. (RICH III, JOHN) (Entered: 08/28/2013)
