The parties have through August 28, 2015, in which to submit Final Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The Court took this matter UNDER ADVISEMENT. Court was adjourned. 09/25/2015	135	FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW. The Court is mindful that "prolonged confinement in administrative segregation may constitute a violation of the Eighth Amendment (and therefore the Fourteenth), depending on the duration and nature of the segregation and whether there were feasible alternatives to that confinement." Townsend, 759 F.3d at 690 (internal quotation omitted). And prior to trial the Court considered the duration of Mr. Isby-Israel's confinement in administrative segregation to be stunning, but the Court has found no case under similar circumstances where duration alone, coupled with a prisoner's refusal to participate in correctional programming, supported a finding of a constitutional violation. Based on the foregoing, the Court finds that the defendants are entitled to judgment in their favor, and the plaintiff shall take nothing from his second amended complaint. Final judgment shall now issue consistent with this Entry and with the Entry of July 30, 2013 (dismissing defendants Lemmon and Knight). Signed by Judge Jane Magnus-Stinson on 9/25/2015. (BGT) (Entered: 09/25/2015)

09/25/2015	136	FINAL JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. PRO. 58. The Court having this day made its Entry directing the entry of final judgment, the Court now enters FINAL JUDGMENT. Judgment is entered in favor of the defendants and against the plaintiff. The plaintiff shall take nothing by his second amended complaint and this action is dismissed. Signed by Judge Jane Magnus-Stinson on 9/25/2015. (BGT) (Entered: 09/25/2015)
10/13/2015	137	MOTION for Copy of Transcript of Bench Trial, filed by Plaintiff AARON ISBY-ISRAEL. (BGT) (Entered: 10/14/2015)
10/16/2015	138	Entry Discussing Motion for Transcript And Extending the Time to File a Notice of Appeal – This action was dismissed after a two day bench trial on July 27, and July 28, 2015. Judgment was entered September 25, 2015. On October 13, 2015, the plaintiff filed a motion for copy of transcript of bench trial which states that the plaintiff "is in the process of or contemplating of pursuing an appeal to the Seventh Circuit." Dkt. 137. He requests that a transcript of the bench trial conducted on July 27, and July 28, 2015, be provided to him at no cost. The plaintiff's motion for copy of transcript of bench trial [dkt. 137] is denied as premature and incomplete with respect to whether the transcripts can be provided at public cost. The motion [dkt. 137], however, is also treated as a motion for extension of time in which to file a notice of appeal. To that extent, the Court finds good cause and the motion is granted. See Rule 4(a)(5) of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure. The original deadline to file a timely notice of appeal is October 26, 2015. That deadline is extended to November 25, 2015. No further extensions will be granted. In addition to the notice of appeal and motion to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis, the plaintiff shall file a separate renewed motion requesting that the transcripts be paid by the United States. The motion for transcripts should set forth the reasons any portion of the transcript which is sought is necessary for the appeal. (See Entry.) Copy to plaintiff via US Mail. 09/26/2018	259	ENTRY DISCUSSING PLAINTIFF'S PRO SE MOTIONS – On June 5, 2017, the Court recruited counsel to represent the plaintiff in this action until final judgment is entered. Dkt. 173 . Since that date, recruited counsel has ably represented the plaintiff. Nonetheless, the plaintiff filed three motions pro se on September 24, 2018, the day before trial started. It is confusing for the Court and the record to have the plaintiff file motions on his own. In short, at this time, the plaintiff is not pro se. The Court will only consider filings made through counsel. Accordingly, the plaintiff's motion in limine, dkt. 255 , motion that he not be forced to wear restraints during trial, dkt. 256 , and motion to take judicial notice, [dkt. 257 , are denied without prejudice.
