MODIFIED JUDGMENT OF PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

This case returns to this Court upon the denial of an application for stay presented to Justice Thomas on October 17, 2005. On October 13, 2005, the Court granted Plaintiff's Motion for a Preliminary Injunction and ordered Defendants to transport Plaintiff on Saturday, October 14, 2005 for the purpose of providing medical services to terminate her pregnancy.

The Defendants failed to comply with the Court's Order and applied to the Court for a Motion to Stay or Suspend the Preliminary Injunction Pending Appeal and Request for Expedited Ruling. That Motion was Denied and the Court entered a Modified Judgment of Preliminary Injunction ordering Defendants to transport Plaintiff for the purpose of providing medical services to terminate her pregnancy on Saturday, October 15, 2005 at 9:00 A.M..

On October 14, 2005, the Supreme Court of the United States ordered that the Modified Judgment of October 14, 2005 issued by this Court be stayed pending further Order by Justice Thomas or the Supreme Court of the United States.

On October 17, 2005, the Supreme Court of the United States vacated the temporary stay entered on October 14, 2005 and denied the application for stay presented to Justice Thomas.

Accordingly, Defendants are directed to transport Plaintiff on or before October 21, 2005, for the purpose of providing medical services to terminate her pregnancy, including, but not limited to any necessary counseling, education, surgery, and follow-up services, for a period of no more than 48 hours. The parties shall confer and agree to the time and place said services will take place and shall so advise the Court of the details prior to 5:00 p.m. on October 19, 2005.

The parties shall provide the Court with a proposed scheduling order in the ordinary course of scheduling, but within no more than 45 days, to establish a schedule to determine whether Defendants shall be permanently prohibited from denying prisoners access to medical services to terminate pregnancy.

IT IS SO ORDERED
