12/23/2015	144	ORDER GRANTING THE PARTIES' JOINT MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS-ACTION SETTLEMENT granting 137 Motion to Certify Class; granting 137 Motion for Settlement. FINDS AND ORDERS: 1. The Court finds for purposes of settlement only that the prerequisites for a class action under Rule 23(a) and (b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure have been satisfied in that (a) the Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable; (b) there are questions of law or fact common to the Class; (c) the plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of the Class; (d) the plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class; and (e) the defendants acted or refused to act on grounds that apply generally to the Class so that final relief is appropriate for the Class as a whole. 2. Accordingly, pursuant to Rule 23(a) and (b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure the following settlement class ("Class") is

		certified: All DOCCS inmates who are now serving, or will in the future serve, a disciplinary confinement sanction in a SHU or in one of the programs created under or referenced in the Agreement. 3. The Court finds the New York Civil Liberties Union, Morrison & Foerster LLP, and Alexander A Reinert have extensive expertise in prosecuting class action cases, and appoints them as Class Counsel pursuant to Rule 23(g) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. 4. The Court grants preliminarily approval to the Settlement Agreement, attached to this order as Exhibit A, as being fair, reasonable and adequate to the Class, subject to further consideration at the Fairness Hearing. Any Class member shall have the right to submit a written objection to the Court during the Notice Period in advance of the Fairness Hearing, in the manner specified in the Notice. The Notice Period will begin on Jan. 13, 2016 and end on March 14, 2016. A Fairness Hearing will be held before this Court on Mar. 28, at 4 p. in Courtroom 15C, at the Daniel Patrick Moynihan Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York, at which time objections and comments on the proposed Settlement Agreement will be considered by the Court and the Court will determine whether the Settlement Agreement should be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate, and whether it shall be entered as the Final Judgment in this action. 01/20/2016	187	LETTER addressed to Clerk of the Court from Rolando Leon re: non-party, Rolando Leon, informs the Court that the punishments and excessive time in S.H.U. given to many inmates/offenders are overly severe and I believe to innovate the living conditions will propagate the ideal of getting back what we've lost and encourage commendable behavior amongst the majority. 01/20/2016	194	LETTER from Danny Gonzalez dated 1/8/16 re: Non-party Danny Gonzalez informs the Court that he disagreed with this class-action lawsuit due to the injustice and the cruel and unusual punishment inflicted and the imposed illegal sanctions by the D.O.C.C.S. and D.O.C.S. in retaliations and harassments; but he is only in agreement to implement (A),(B), (C), (D), (E), (G), (H), (I), (J), and (K). 03/31/2016	329	OPINION AND ORDER #106383 re: 315 FINAL MOTION for Settlement Approval . filed by Dewayne Richardson, Tonja Fenton, Leroy Peoples. This Settlement Agreement represents a significant step toward improving the conditions of solitary confinement throughout New York State. Nonetheless, it could not and did not address every problem experienced by prisoners in general or in solitary confinement in particular. Further reforms are likely to follow, especially when the Attorney General, representing the people of New York, has demonstrated his strong commitment to improving the conditions of confinement for prisoners within the State's custody. This litigation, and the way it has been handled by all of the attorneys, is the best example of the power of impact litigation to redress conditions that affect the most vulnerable members of our society. Another benefit of the successful resolution of this case is that it will undoubtedly inspire

		other members of the legal community to accept representation of individuals like Mr. Peoples, Mr. Richardson, and Ms. Fenton - who, with the help of outstanding counsel, were able to bring about the system-wide result that the Court approves today. For the foregoing reasons, the Joint Motion for Final Approval of Settlement is GRANTED. The Clerk of the Court is directed to close this motion (Dkt. No. 315). (As further set forth in this Order.)
