MEMORANDUM OF COMPLIANCE CONFERENCE & ORDER

THIS MATTER came on for a compliance conference on November 10, 1987. A telephonic hearing was conducted. Gayle D. Fidler of the U.S. Dept. of Justice appeared for the plaintiff and Treston E. Moore of the Virgin Islands Dept. of Justice appeared for the defendant. As a result of the conference, the following determinations were made.

1. A deadline of December 15, 1987 was set for defendant, Government of the Virgin Islands, to submit reports of the implementation by the compliance team of the procedure required to satisfy the Consent Order.

2. The defendants will immediately submit any data that they have available without waiting for the December 15, 1987 cutoff date.

3. On or before January 4, 1988, plaintiff will file a full response to all plans and procedures submitted, excepting emergency evacuation plans.

4. On January 8, 1988, a conference will be held by telephone in an effort to resolve any outstanding issues regarding planning requirements.

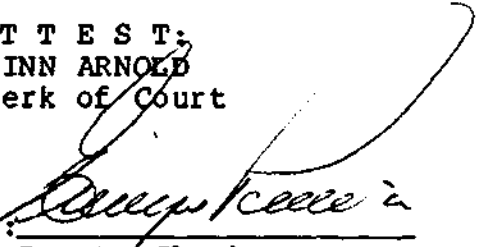

5. It is imperative that the above scheduling be complied with so that the plaintiff's inspection team can come to St. Croix during the month of February to complete their inspection on the progress of the project.

DONE AND SO ORDERED November 12, 1987.
