ORDER

For administrative convenience and in order to provide more prompt payment of the experts who drafted the Plan of Compliance in accordance with this Court's Order of October 7, 1988, it is hereby ORDERED THAT:

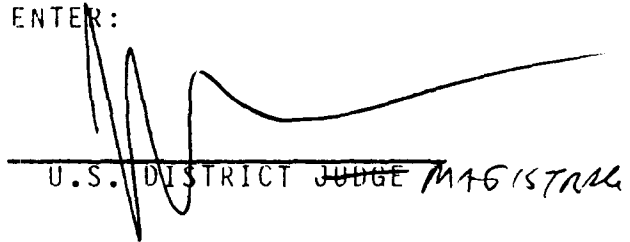

1. The United States shall pay the experts who prepared the Plan of Compliance in accordance with the bills submitted on March 28, 1989: $3247.00 to Dr. Charles Braslow and $4733.76 to Mr. John Dahm.

2. The Order of this court dated May 22, 1989 is amended to state that the Virgin Islands government shall promptly reimburse the United States for payment of the experts upon submission of a statement showing payment of the experts to counsel for the Virgin Islands.

3. This Order does not constitute a decision on the United States' motion for contempt for failure to pay these experts nor does it constitute a finding that the United States is liable for the payment of the experts.

DATED this 9 day of November, 1989.
