05/10/2006	83	MINUTE entry before Judge Joan B. Gottschall : Victor Crown's motion and request for court order 81 is denied. In its order dated 1/11/06, this court denied Mr. Crown's pending motions because he did not have standing to seek enforcement of the consent decree. His current motion alleges largely the same facts as his previous motions. The proper way for mr. Crown to pursue any claims he might have is to file a new civil action. if he continues to file motions in this case in spite of this court's order, the court may enter sanctions against him. 04/19/2007	109	MINUTE entry before Judge Joan B. Gottschall :Non-party Victor M. Crown's motion to enforce and stay 99 is denied. The court has denied virtually the same motion twice already because Mr. Crown does not have standing to file motions in this case, but Mr. Crown is clearly not deterred. If he files another frivolous motion in this case, sanctions will be imposed to compensate the court and counsel for the time spent dealing with the motion. In addition, because it appears that Mr. Crown's repeated filing of baseless motions is not a problem limited to this case, this matter is referred to the Executive Committee so that it may consider whether additional action should be taken.Mailed notice (smm) (Entered: 04/20/2007)
