The Court addresses the parties and advises them that he has reviewed Ms. Keyser-Cooper's filing regarding this hearing and ensures that Mr. Campbell has seen the filing. The parties present their respective arguments to the Court. The Court orders that a protective order regarding the IA reports will be submitted for review and approval and thereafter, those requested reports will be provided to Plaintiff's counsel. 08/01/2006	48	MINUTES OF PROCEEDINGS - Discovery Hearing held on 8/1/2006 before Judge Robert A. McQuaid Jr.. Crtrm Administrator: GMM ; Pla Counsel: Diane Vaillancourt ; Def Counsel: Jack Campbell ; Court Reporter/FTR #: FTR #1:30 p.m. to 1:43 p.m. ; Time of Hearing: 1:30 p.m. . The Court addresses the parties and explains the purpose of this hearing is at Ms. Vaillancourt's request and it is about her concern of not having the appropriate documents necessary to complete the doctors' depositions scheduled for Monday, August 7, 2006. The parties present their respective arguments to the Court. The Court advises counsel that one of the inherent problems of attending depositions by telephone is not being able to view documents that are presented for the first time at the deposition and that decision should not prejudice the attending parties by making them wait for the document(s) in question to be faxed and reviewed. The Court will not order that counsel for Defendants comply with this request. The Court advises the parties that Plaintiffs' counsel has just this day filed a Renewed Motion to Compel Production of Evidence Supporting Plaintiff's Arrest of March 19, 2005 47 and, although Defendants have not yet had a chance to review the Motion, the Court GRANTS it. Defendants' counsel advises the Court that he and Ms. Vaillancourt had just discussed this issue, that he was unaware that a motion had been filed and that he has already contacted the appropriate person to ascertain if the photographs exist and, if so, will provide same to Plaintiffs. The Court further orders that if there are no photographs, an affidavit of the custodian of such evidence stating there are no photographs will be filed. Ms. Vaillancourt again asks for Dr. Chappell's report that at the last hearing Mr. Campbell had agreed to provide. Mr. Campbell advises the Court that although he was given two weeks within which to comply with that request, he will provide the information as soon as it is prepared. Ms. Vaillancourt inquires as to the Court's availability on Monday, August 7, 2006 in case problems arise at the depositions. The Court advises the parties that he will be available. There being nothing further, the Court adjourns. (no image attached) (GMM, ) (Entered: 08/01/2006)

The Court addresses the parties and explains the purpose of this hearing is to determine whether or not there is any real interest in having the scheduled settlement conference.
