01/29/2016	42	Status Conference Order/Minutes of proceedings before Judge Solomon Oliver, Jr. Status Conference held on 1/28/2016, on the record. The Monitor briefly discussed the requested addition of Commissioner Charles H. Ramsey (Ret.) as Deputy Monitor. The parties then discussed the progress made, to date, under the Consent Decree. The parties also emphasized the collaborative working relationships established among stakeholders, as well as the steps taken to foster community involvement in the Consent Decree process. Counsel for the City of Cleveland also briefly updated the court on the resolution of litigation, in both state and federal court, related to the training of police academy recruits. The Monitor then highlighted the anticipated milestones to be reached under the First-Year Monitoring Plan, which was developed in coordination with the parties and the community-at-large. Finally, the court indicated that it would remain actively involved in the Consent Decree process and anticipated holding similar status conferences in the future. 01/17/2017	101	Status Conference Order/Minutes of proceedings before Judge Solomon Oliver, Jr. Status Conference held on 1/6/2017. After hearing from the Monitor and the Parties, the court granted 83 Motion Recommending Approval of Revised Use of Force Policies of the Cleveland Division of Police, with conditions specified. The new policies will become effective upon the Cleveland Division of Police's successful completion of Use of Force Training. The court delayed ruling on 86 Motion Recommending Approval of Office of Professional Standards and Police Review Board Manuals, as the Parties indicated that there were minor technical issues that needed to be addressed prior to approval. The court granted 87 Motion Recommending Approval of Select Proposed 2017 Budgets, thereby approving the 2017 budgets for the Community Police Commission and the Police Review Board and the first quarter of 2017 budget for the Office of Professional Standards. The court granted in part and denied in part 92 the Monitor's Motion Regarding Cleveland Division of Police Proposed Wearable Camera System Policy. The court granted 93 the Motion Regarding Cleveland Division of Police Equipment & Resource Plan. Additionally, the court briefly addressed concerns raised by the Community Police Commission regarding its membership and progress, urging it to consult with the Monitor and the Parties, and adopt clear, comprehensive bylaws.
