

Comparison: Interference

Our proposed decree prohibits defendant state officials from interfering with "the elimination of racial discrimination" by the local school systems. Plaintiffs' proposed decree makes similar provisions subject to one minor modification. The defendant state officials, under plaintiffs' proposed decree, would be prohibited from interfering with "the elimination of segregation or other forms of racial discrimination" by the local school systems.